

EUROPEAN HILL CLIMB CHAMPIONSHIP

2023

SPECIAL PROVISIONS OF THE EHC ORGANISERS

*****

Further to the Title of Champion and the Trophies awarded by the FIA voluntary

m o n e y   p r i z e s

from a common fund created by the organisers of the competitions of the European Hill Climb Championship will be distributed as follows:

Final general classification of each categories I and II

1st place	€	3'025.-
2nd place	€	1'925.-
3rd place	€	1'100.-
4th place	€	825.-
5th place	€	660.-
6th place	€	550.-
7th place	€	440.-
8th place	€	275.-

These prizes will be increased by a bonus of € 5.-
for each point counted in the Championship.

The prize money is determined pro rata of the events held. The prize money mentioned here is for a season with 10 events. If events are cancelled, no prize money will be paid for them. The amounts are reduced according to the number of events not carried out.

Only the drivers who obtained at least a third of the maximum points to be retained at the end of the season will be included (maximum number of events retained, according Art. 5, to 25 points each).

Prizes and bonus monies must be collected personally by the driver at the end of season Awards Ceremony of the EHC Organisers. Uncollected prizes and bonus will be deemed to be not awarded.

Souvenir medals will be given to first 8 classified drivers and the winner of the Ladies Cup of each category (I and II).

Ladies Cup

A Ladies Cup will be given to the best female driver of each category (I and II), if the driver has participated in at least three events.